TEAS Exam Prep
Get extra help now at Roxbury Community College!

Please note:
The TEAS (Test of Essential Academic Skills) Exam is required by many nursing/allied health schools as part of their admissions process. Please check with each school you plan to apply to in order to see their list of requirements and deadlines.

- Students should use these intensive review sessions to supplement their own ongoing studying and exam prep.
- Students should have basic skills for reading, English, and math prior to taking prep courses, and have taken some or most of the prerequisite courses necessary for your application.
- These study prep courses do not guarantee a minimum score or program acceptance into your desired program(s).
