Are you an RCC student?
Do you need help with your housing?
We can help!

MBHP is partnering with Roxbury Community College to provide housing counseling services for RCC students.

Affordable Housing Workshop
Building # 4, Student Center, Room 200
Monday, October 19, 11 a.m.-1 p.m.
Refreshments will be provided

*Starting this fall, MBHP staff members will visit campus regularly to meet one-on-one with RCC students, check your RCC email for more information.

Check MBHP’s website for more information on MBHP’s current prevention, training, and other housing initiatives.

Metropolitan Boston Housing Partnership (MBHP) is a leading nonprofit that connects families and individuals with safe, decent homes they can afford. Through our broad array of programs and services, as well as our extensive network of fellow service providers, MBHP is able to serve families and individuals along the continuum from homelessness to housing stability.

*Please note: The information that will be provided is not legal advice or counseling. To obtain legal consultation regarding your housing matters, you must contact legal services.