Roxbury Repertory Theater presents
Tennessee Williams’ The Glass Menagerie: A Different Perspective
Directed by Robbie McCauley
Set, Lighting and Costume Design by Mirta Tocci

October 23-25
October 30-November 1
Mainstage at the Media Arts Building

Artistic Director Robbie McCauley, a recipient of both the IRNE and OBIE Awards, takes on Tennessee Williams’ The Glass Menagerie this fall. This early work is one of Williams’ signature plays. McCauley has wanted to take on the play for a while. McCauley dissects the play and adds several dimensions to the Wingfield Family. Mother Amanda, daughter Laura and son Tom as well as Jim the gentleman caller reveal a richer and more intricate subtext. William’s play is the benchmark for abstract art set to brilliant prose. For more information and to reserve tickets, please contact Pamela Green pgreen@rcc.mass.edu 617 541-5380. Mainstage at the Media Arts Building is wheelchair accessible.
