Arts and Humanities Program Outcomes:

• Understand information literacy and its application to the arts
• Be able to analyze artistic works
• Write organized and effective essays
• Demonstrate effective oral communication skills
• Demonstrate effective research skills and integration of sources
• Demonstrate analytic and critical thinking
• Understand the cultural and historical nature of artistic creation
• Understand the anthropological and sociological significance of art
• Recognize the ability of art to create meaning and illuminate aspects of human experience
• Be able to create or perform artistic works in at least one discipline
• Demonstrate basic technical proficiency in at least one art form