I. English Program Outcomes:

- Understand information literacy and its application to writing and research
- Conduct literary critiques
- Write organized and effective essays in various rhetorical formats
- Understand literary genres
- Develop effective oral communication skills
- Be familiar with classic works of literature
- Demonstrate mastery of documentation styles (in particular, MLA and/or APA)
- Understand plagiarism and the rationale for documentation
- Demonstrate effective research skills and integration of sources
- Be able to apply literary themes to personal experiences
- Conform to the accepted standards of academic English
- Demonstrate analytic and critical thinking in all forms of communication