AFGHAN WOMEN:

A HISTORY OF STRUGGLE

Friday, February 26th
12:30 - 2:30P.M.

Academic Building, Room 121

The tumultuous history of Afghanistan from the perspective of the country's female population, AFGHAN WOMEN: A HISTORY OF STRUGGLE chronicles the stories of women who have risked their lives to achieve political, economic, and social equality, from the early 1970's to the present day.

Rare archival footage illustrates the amazing stories of women who participated in the revolutionary movement of the 1970's and the years of political turmoil that followed: from proxy war, to civil war, to the ensuing oppressive rule of the Taliban and the current sway of regional warlords and general instability.

Filmmaker Kathleen Foster will be present for the discussion that follows the film.
