ACADEMIC INTEGRITY AND STUDENT CONDUCT

All Roxbury Community College students are entrusted and expected to uphold all requirements outlined in the code of conduct in the student handbook. The code of conduct provides a code of ethics to promote excellence, personal growth, and superb learning and scholarship. The code of conduct, requirements, and grievance procedures are found within the student handbook and can be found here. Any questions, concerns, or reports of conduct which may violate the code of conduct should be reported to the Dean of Students, Lisa Carter, at lcarter@rcc.mass.edu.
