TEAS Exam Prep Classes

TEAS Exam: Required for admission into many nursing/allied health programs

Considering applying to a nursing or allied health program? Many schools require the TEAS exam as part of their admissions process. Please check with your intended schools regarding their requirements/deadlines. These courses are open to anyone interested; you do not have to be an RCC student to register.

These intensive review sessions are designed to supplement students’ ongoing studying and exam prep. Prep courses do not guarantee a minimum score or program acceptance into your desired program(s). Students will benefit the most from prep courses if they have already taken most of the prerequisite courses necessary for applying to their schools of choice.

Please check with your schools/programs of choice regarding their application requirements and deadlines.
