TEST CENTER POLICIES AND PROCEEDURES: READ CAREFULLY

When you register for an exam, you agree to comply with all the rules set below. Violation of test center rules, including the possession or use of prohibited materials during a test session, may result in the voiding of your test results and/or expulsion from the testing center.

- Be on time. If you do not, you may forfeit your appointment.
- Bring Photo ID. Photo ID is required for all exams in the Testing Center.

Acceptable forms of ID for all exams (must be current & not expired):

a. Driver’s license
b. State-issued photo ID
c. Passport
d. Permanent Resident Card

For College Placement Tests and RCC Course Exams a current RCC Student ID is also acceptable.

Testing staff are required to evaluate every ID and are required to ask for additional ID if the primary ID presented does not match the registration, is expired, or for any other reason cannot be used to reasonably ID the test taker.

The following are not allowed in the Testing Labs:

- Cell phones and other personal electronics
- Watches or Fitbits
- Sunglasses; Glasses will be checked
- Disruptive, unsafe, or violent behavior
- Food, drink, and liquids of any kind
- Outerwear and hats
- Bags, backpacks, and packages
- Unauthorized study aids (such as dictionaries, rulers, calculators)
- Weapons of any kind

Lockers are available for storing personal items.

Please come alone as we do not provide waiting area for guests.

Note: children are not allowed to be unattended outside of the Testing Center or any other area of the college during testing.

Medications and medical devices may be permitted with the approval of testing staff. Contact us in advance with any questions.

Contact the Testing Department in advance if you have questions or concerns about any of these policies.
